

Planet Foods

Strong & Healthy™

In 1995 Planet Foods Inc. was born to provide healthy and natural food for everyone in Canada. We continue to hold true to this vision today.

True Brand Development.™

Planet Foods incorporates all levels of brand development into a complex distribution network using the skills of highly accomplished professionals. Our company embraces individuals with unique skills, thus creating a team that is ready for any challenge. Brand development begins with our skills in account and product management, nutrition, athletics, leadership, events planning, fitness instruction, marketing, and package design. Our skilled team develops brands by pushing forward through new territories and bringing natural food brands to higher levels of success, which ultimately achieves True Brand Development.™
